Welcome to the Center for Extraordinary Outcomes! The Grigori Grabavoi Method, Matrix Energetics®, Resonance Repatterning®, Scalar Heart Connection®, Spiritual Response Therapy, Soul Memory Discovery, Spiritual Healing for Indigo's, Thought Field Therapy® and the Yuen Method® do not diagnose or prescribe for any disease and are not psychotherapy. Those who receive sessions take full responsibility for consulting a health professional regarding any ailment or symptom that is of personal concern.

Victoria Benoit, M.C. is a certified practitioner of Resonance Repatterning®, Soul Memory Discovery and Spiritual Healing for Indigos.

I understand that muscle checking involves touching the arm and the practitioner may need to place her fingers over the navel area for the umbilical muscle check (in-person sessions). If I am uncomfortable with any touch whatsoever, or with any modality, I will let the practitioner know so that she can check a substitute modality, or can proxy muscle check so that touch is avoided.

A 24-hour notice is needed if rescheduling is necessary or you will be charged for your appointment.
